

AZAT İNAN

SOFTWARE ENGINEERING
STUDENT | FULL STACK
DEVELOPER CANDIDATE

ABOUT ME

Innovative Full Stack Developer and Software Engineering student dedicated to architecting high-performance, scalable solutions. Specializing in the .NET ecosystem, Java, and Spring Boot, I engineer robust backend systems that drive modern HealthTech applications. Beyond my technical expertise, I bring a global perspective and proven crisis-management skills, forged through an Erasmus program in Croatia and five consecutive Work and Travel seasons navigating high-pressure environments in the USA. I am obsessed with clean code principles and thrive in fast-paced teams, consistently delivering impactful, mission-critical software.
